Subject Shanghai First Special District Court Warrant No.1642

issued at the request of the Police Bureau

Made by D.S. McKeown

Forwarded by J. Byrne D. S. I.

At 12.40 p.m. April 2, 1937, members of the Special Branch accompanied by detectives from Central Station and representatives of the Shanghai City Government Police Bureau and the Bureau of Social Affairs visited the Wu Zoe Vung Hwo Voh Wu Dzo (五助文化服務社) situated in an upstairs room of House No.3, Lane 217 Hankow Road, for the purpose of executing Search Warrant No.1642 issued by the Shanghai First Special District Court at the request of the Police Bureau to search and seize certain reactionary publications entitled "Ngoo Mung Ti S Ka" (Wo Mnde Abgie) (我們的土地).

Upon arrival, the room was found locked and a paper slip posted on the door of the room stating that the "society" was temporarily closed owing to financial difficulties.

Enquiries made from Chief Tenant Wong Chai-an (王介安) revealed that the occupant of the room was one named Fang (方), who had left the room about one week ago.

The matter was explained to the representatives of the Police Bureau and the Bureau of Social Affairs, and they stated that they will make further enquiries regarding the whereabouts of the occupant.

The warrant is therefore returned for cancellation.

RECORD OF INVESTIGATION.

-:- Assistance to Chinese Authorities -:-

At 12.50 p.m. 2-4-37, D.S. McKeown attached to Headquarters Special Branch, came to the Station together with Taze Chiao Toong (朱校東) and Zee Kai Sing (徐慶心) attached to the Shanghai City Government Police Bureau Headquarters and requested assistance to search the Koh Tai (國泰) Bookstore, Fookhow Road for reactionary literature, they being possession of S.S.D. Court Search Warrant No.1641 issued by Judge Feng at the request of the Shanghai City Government Police Bureau.

Assistance was rendered by the undersigned and G.D.C.342 and the above premises visited and searched, this resulting in the following reactionary publications being located and seized, same being on display for sale:

- (1) 70 copies of "Koh Na Sing Vung (國難新聞)".
- (2) 2 copies of "Yoh Sung Pao Dau (學生報邊)".

Zau Nan Koong (趙南公), proprietor of the Koh Tai Bookstore, when questioned stated that these publications had been distributed by the Wu Zoo Vung Hoo Voh Wu Zoo (互助文化服務社), House 3 Lane 371 Hankow Road.

The above described papers will be taken before the S.S.D. Court on the 3-4-37 when application will be made for their disposal.
